Culture-at-Large:

Sex and Secularity—Conversations with Michael Warner
Liberty Ballroom A

The Society for Cultural Anthropology's signature event at the annual meeting of the American Anthropological Association, "Culture at Large," features five anthropologists in conversation with an interlocutor from outside the discipline. This year's featured guest is Michael Warner, Seymour H. Knox Professor of English and American Studies at Yale University. In this author-meets-critics style format, Professor Warner will be engaged by: James Faubion (Rice U), Webb Keane (U of Michigan), Saba Mahmood (UC Berkeley), Lucinda Ramberg (U Kentucky) and Michael Silverstein (U of Chicago).
